

SAHRIS OBJECT PDF REPORT

Object Code: H1254

Quantity: 1.00

Cultural Association:

Maker:

Production Place:

Description:

Framed oil portrait of a woman painted on ivory. The woman wears an olive green dress with white collar, cuffs and hood. Holding book and spectacles. Blue eyed, golden brown hair.

Provenance:

Purchased in Scotland - Mrs B.O. Smith March 1973 'Miniature portrait painting on ivory has become very fashionable of late and there are always many in the exhibition at the Royal Academy each year. Moist water-colours are used for the painting, sable brushes and a piece of ivory...' Ref: The Girls Own Annual, 1899, London, pg 160.