Description:

The Parliament Collection:

31 lithographs of well-known men, either South African or British, who played a role in South Africa. With the exception of King Cetshwayo (No 10) and Lady Florence Dixie (No 11) they are all white men. There is a single full-length figure per page, shown from the front, in three-quarter view or in profile view, against an empty background. Many have biographical texts glued onto the page opposite the image. Typed list of contents on frontispiece (linked).
